Our Theme

The word "Saga" has become synonymous with with "yearbook" at Harding.

What is in a name? Behind the word "Saga" lie tales of unequalled courage and deeds, for Saga is a Norse word meaning the record of the Norsemen's heroic actions.

The history of our high school life, as shown by pictures, reveals the moods and moments of our memorable year.

In putting our best foot forward into the future, we are preparing for the same kind of challenge that rose before the Norsemen—that of an unknown journey.

Faculty

The picture of a sage reading tales of heroic deeds to children, preparing them for unknown experiences, recalls those who teach us.

The faculty through patient understanding seeks to instruct us and guide us toward the future. It is the wisdom and knowledge of these, our faculty members, which teach us how to navigate toward a better and more worthwhile life.

I congratulate you seniors of the Class of 1952 and I earnestly wish for each of you the greatest possible measure of true happiness and success. I shall rejoice with you in your achievements and satisfactions, and I shall be saddened by any losses or sorrows which you may suffer along life's way.

H. W. Godfrey

PRINCIPAL

I hope that the Seniors of 1952, as they graduate and go out into the world, will look back to Harding High School with pleasant memories of something besides recitations; that they will recall many a word of counsel, of encouragement, of inspiration, given to them by their teachers and, as the years pass on, they will love to come back to us and show what noble men and women they have become.

MISS SADIE ROSENAU

In Memorium

Miss Sadie Rosenau will remain in the minds of Hardingites as one who by her unselfish work gained the confidence and friendship of each of her students.

For a number of years, she led the students toward a better understanding of government and a more useful way of life.

To all, the passing of Miss Rosenau means the loss of a fine friend as well as a fine teacher.

Activities

The joy that filled the hearts of the Norsemen with the coming of a minstrel and his songs and stories, and the excitement that aroused them at the times of tournaments are the same joy and excitement we feel today.

Who can forget the majestic splendor of Homecoming, the wondrous enchantment of the Junior-Senior Prom, or the thrill of watching the curtain rise on one of our popular plays or operettas?

The extra-curricular activities have proved to be such an important factor that without these social high-lights, our high school days would not be complete.

Homecoming

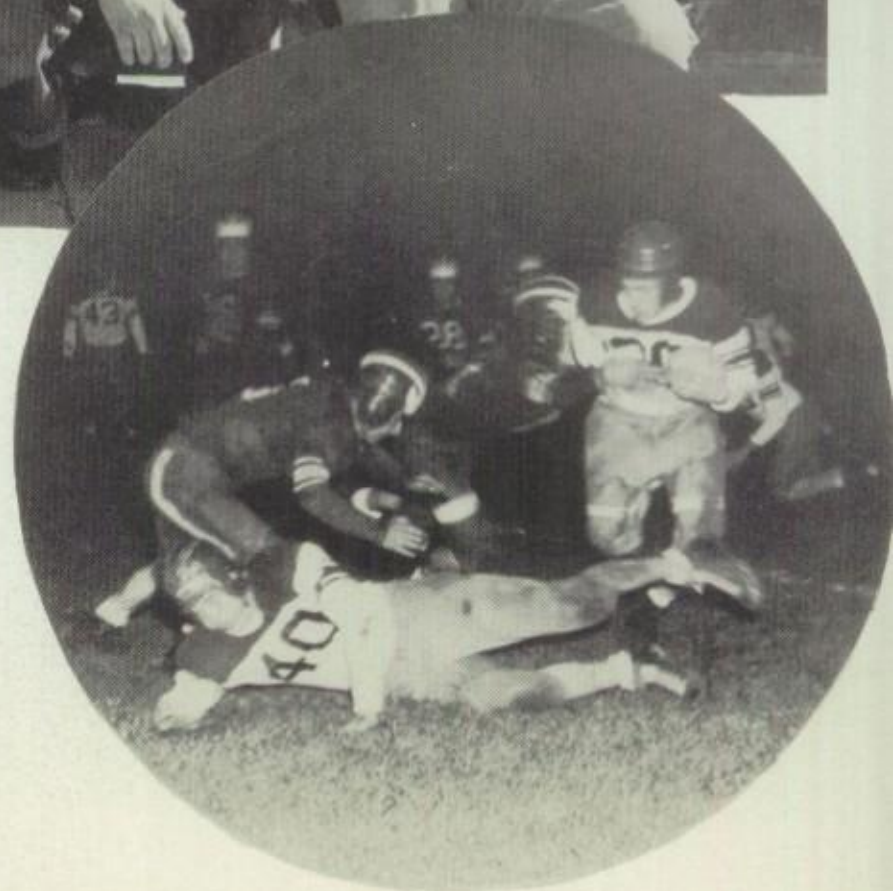

School boys turn into gallant knights; the school building becomes a lovely castle; and school life takes on a complete change during Homecoming events. The excitement of the football game, the merriment at the pep fest, the anxiety of the king and queen candidates, the gala parade, and, finally, the Homecoming Ball: all these are a part of a student's life at Homecoming.

Ethics Committee

The Ethics Committee, consisting of four members, is the law preserving body of Harding. The purpose of the Ethics Committee is to discipline students who have violated rules during the school day. Not pictured is D'Arlene Vye.

Student Governing Board

The Student Governing Board of Harding may well be called the backbone of the Student Council. Meetings are held during first period, in which the Board takes care of the business transactions of the Student Council and decides the policies to be carried out by the homeroom representatives.

Each period, the halls of Harding are patrolled by volunteer hall monitors. These monitors, under the direction of Mrs. Dora Swanson, direct and supervise hall traffic. The supervisors are: Jim Zastrow, Russell Lovegren, Beverly Anger, Bill Paddock, DeLoris DuFresne, Red Odden

Honor Study Supervisors

The responsibility of supervising study halls has been turned over to the Student Council, which has in turn organized honor studies with a selected supervisor in charge of each one. The purpose is to encourage self government among the students.

Red Cross Representatives

The Junior Red Cross, under the leadership of Miss Gladys Mays, does its part to answer the world call for funds and aid. Each homeroom has its own representative, who collects donations and reports progress. The officers are: Roger Ball, president; Peggy Hawkins, vice-president; Pat Thielen, secretary; Marlene Nakken, treasurer.

Book Store

The Book Store, supervised by Ray Theis, was established by the Latin Club and is now operated by the Student Council for the convenience of the students. It furnishes the student body with necessary supplies at reasonable prices. This year the store has added Harding notebooks and loose-leaf folders to its list of supplies.

Trades Training

Students in the Trades Training program, which is new to Harding this year, have three morning classes called "Occupational Relations". In the afternoon they leave school and go to their respective jobs. Students are training for work as mechanics, cooks, sales clerks and bookkeepers. Each member receives a school credit for his work on the job. The program is directed by Mr. Alfred Johnson.

On November 14, Harding played host to the city business men on E.E.E. Day (Employer, Employee, Education Day). The purpose of E.E.E. Day is to bring about a closer relationship between education, labor, and business. After a musical program by the Madrigal Club, student conducted tours took place throughout the school. A dinner followed.

A group of business men observing an experiment in the chemistry laboratory.

Orchestra

The music-loving members of the orchestra have become one of the most popular groups at Harding. Ever ready to entertain at special programs, they can be depended upon to provide pleasing arrangements of the latest popular tunes.

The orchestra plays for intermission of the plays and operettas held throughout the year.

Majorettes

The Majorettes, led this year by Pat Thielen, add color and sparkle to the band. They can be seen twirling their flashing batons at all band functions.

Janice Larson, Marlyse Johnson, Pat Thielen, Beverly Post, Louise Klinkhammer.

Band

Maintaining school prestige among the various Saint Paul Public High Schools and promoting school spirit are the foremost aims of the Harding Band. The complete band is present at every football game, and a "Pep Band" has been organized this year to play at hockey and basketball games. Harding's concert-marching Band displays one of the most efficient and spirited musical organizations of its kind in the city. Under the direction of Mr. Herbert Matthes, two concerts are presented during the course of the school year. The band, of more than sixty members, is truly a credit to Harding High.

"A" Choir

Under the direction of Mrs. Maxine Ehrich, the "A" Choir has gained a place in the lives of Hardingites.

During the year the choir presented a part of the Christmas program, the spring concert and performed for the P.T.S.A.

Girl's Glee

This year the Girls' Glee furnished an enjoyable part of the Christmas assembly and also sang at the Mounds Hospital during the Christmas season.

Under the direction of Mrs. Maxine Ehrich, these future members of "A" Choir and Madrigal gained experience and confidence during their year in Girls' Glee.

"A" Choir

Officers of the "A" Choir include: President Clarence James, Vice-President Margaret Hetland, Treasurer Kathleen Beisang and Secretary Lois Rambo. They were elected at the beginning of the year by their fellow Choir members.

Madrigal

This year the Madrigal Club has extended its repertoire to include Italian, French and German madrigal music as well as the traditional English songs.

During the year they sang at numerous P.T.S.A. meetings throughout the city and also for many large organizations

Some of the highlights of the year were Christmas caroling at Anker Hospital and the annual trip to the Saint Cloud Veteran's Hospital.

The Pirates of Penzance

The Pirates of Penzance by W. S. Gilbert and Arthur Sullivan was the musical production presented by the "A" Choir last year under the direction of the former music teacher, Miss Ann Coddling.

The action of the operetta is centered around Frederic, who, through the faulty hearing of his nurse, Ruth, was apprenticed to a pirate.

Although Frederic loathed the pirate trade, his sense of duty obliged him to be loyal, even though his love for Mabel, a ward of the Major-General, urged him to turn to a more lawful calling.

The brave policeman, the lusty pirates and the lovely ladies made this production gay, laughable and thoroughly enjoyable.

Frederic was played by Jack Mielke; Ruth, Karen Gessner and Shirley Hooper; Mable, Dorothy Kappas and Mary Lou McCullah; Major-General, Bill Barte; Pirate King, Richard Kohn and Gene Mielke; Samuel, the pirate king's handy man, by Charles Sarnier and Clarence James; the sergeant-of-the-police by Earl Josephson and Tom Schintz; Edith, Gloria Smith and DeLoris DuFresne; Kate, Betty Schoch and Audrey Bollmann; and Isabel by Louise Schoch and Dorothy Peltier.

Senior Class Play

The tense drama of a court room trial was vividly portrayed in the senior class play, The Night of January Sixteenth.

Seniors tossed aside the traditional socks and sweaters and transformed themselves into such characters as the lovely Karen Andre, who was being tried for murder; the defense attorney; the district attorney; the rugged gambler; and the solemn judge.

Was Karen Andre guilty of the murder of Bjorn Faulkner? Yes? No? Throughout the play the audience was held in suspense, awaiting the verdict of the jury.

The play was directed by Miss Josie Kellet, former director of speech at Harding.

The Pot Boiler

The audience was permitted to see the dress rehearsal of the play which was not yet completely written by the director, Mr. Sud. Mr. Inkwell and Mrs. Pencil were the black villains; Miss Ivory, the sweet young heroine; and Mr. Ruler, the noble hero.

Grenachika

Charlotte Wiesner, Mary Burns, Vincent Ashton.

Antic Spring

This play was a hilarious example of high school romance. The plot centered around a picnic in the country by a group of teen-agers. The group includes the instigator, a bookworm, a moonstruck couple, a happy-go-lucky, and a "brat".

Beacon Staff

Just as the beacon at Mounds Park guides airplanes through the night, Harding's Beacon has guided the students in their school life.

The Beacon Staff, under the direction of Mrs. Anita Moen, put forth its best efforts to supply the school with news of all the happenings and activities during the past year.

Rush stories, deadlines, after school hours and typewriters banging away are typical of the Beacon Staff in the midst of preparing the Beacon for print.

Saga Editors

This year the Saga Staff, led by Josephine Lombardi and DeLoris DuFresne, and under the direction of Mrs. Anita Moen and Mr. Keith Bergstrom, has tried to bring you a memory book that will live forever. They have endeavored to capture within these pages the spirit of high school: its gay moods and its serious ones.

Saga Staff

The Saga Staff this year did double duty. Not only did they put in many hours of work on the Saga, but they also had to meet the deadlines of the school paper.

The Saga Staff wants to express their thanks for the co-operation of everyone in helping them put out this book in the best possible way.

The endeavor of this book is to restore and preserve the memory of Harding. If this is done, the Saga Staff has attained its goal.

Junior - Senior Prom

In the gala excitement of whirling skirts and waltz tempos, the evening of May eighteenth was danced away by the juniors and seniors attending the Junior-Senior Prom.

At the long awaited hour of nine, the beautiful ladies were escorted by their handsome partners into the ballroom of the Lowry Hotel.

The grand march was led by the Junior Class president, Mike Welch, and his guest, Margaret McKenzie. They were followed by Senior Class president, David Jacobson, and his guest, Joanne Joyce.

Sports

Since the beginning of time, man has felt the need to challenge—man against man, man against nature. This yearning to compete has brought to our daily life organized sports.

Whether the games be those of the Norsemen or the games of modern times, the spirit of sportsmanship is the same. Taking part in sports, whether as a spectator or as a participator, gives a thrill that no other pastime can equal.

For the driving desire to defeat, the players need the spirit of the school behind them as a body, supporting them until that final moment of triumph when victory is won.

"A" Football

The 1951 Harding football team, with its hard running backs and powerful line, scored sixteen touchdowns in winning six games and losing two, as they finished in second place behind Murray in the City Prep Conference.

HARDING 7 MECHANIC ARTS 6

Although Harding outplayed the Mechanic Arts' team through the entire game, the Maroons waited until the fourth quarter before Bob Spreeman scored with only five minutes remaining in the game. Red Odden kicked the winning extra point.

HARDING 6 CENTRAL 0

Harding waited again, with the fans in suspense, until the last quarter to beat Central. Red Odden tossed a touchdown pass to Jerry Larson with only five seconds remaining to play.

HARDING 7 MURRAY 20

Bob Spreeman, George Suerth and Len Alexander were missing from the Maroon line-up, and the Murray Pilots whipped them to the tune of 20 to 7. The game was fairly even until the fourth quarter, when the tired Hardingites were simply overpowered.

HARDING 6 WILSON 0

Wilson was the victim of a Harding team on the rebound, and the Maroons won 6 to 0. The Redmen fought stubbornly against Harding's superior power but received a terrific bruising at the hands of the Maroons. Harding scored on a pass from Red Odden to Jerry Larson.

HARDING 3 JOHNSON 19

In the annual Hatchet battle, Harding was upset by a high-spirited Johnson football team. The injured veterans played very little, and the Maroon spirit was very low. Red Odden kicked a field goal in the first period for Harding.

HARDING 27 HUMBOLDT 0

Harding went on a rampage and whipped the oft-beaten Humboldt eleven to start on the come-back trail in grand fashion. The school spirit started to emote from the stands and gave the team a big lift.

HARDING 29 WASHINGTON 0

The Maroons had a lot of fun at Washington's expense and scored 22 points in the first half. Murray had lost one game and enthusiasm was high at Harding, for if the Pilots could lose one more, Harding and Murray would be tied for first place.

HARDING 13 MONROE 7

The Harding team, a very determined crew to the last, battered a stubborn Monroe team to take second place in the conference. Murray won its last game to take first place, but Harding enjoyed a very successful season.

Athletic Council

The Athletic Council, directed by Mr. James Landis, prepares and approves all general policies and budgets for athletic functions. This year the council has done much to encourage better school spirit and increase attendance at sport events.

Juniors Red Odden, Bill Paddock and Will Benker led the team in scoring this year. Odden was the highest scorer on the team with 156 points; Paddock was second with 118; and Benker third with 113 points.

Of the five graduating seniors on the basketball team, top scorers are Forward Tom O'Connor with 100 points for conference play and Center Al Johnson with 97 points. Forwards Dick Dolby and Clarence Wright, along with Guard George Suerth, comprise the rest of the senior squad members.

"A" Basketball

Mr. Andrew Droen, taking over the reigns of the Harding basketball team, started his team in excellent fashion with a victory over Hudson, Wisconsin, 52 to 39.

Then the house fell in on the Maroons as they dropped twelve straight contests: six in non-conference and six in conference play. In non-conference tilts, Red Wing beat them, 61 to 41; River Falls, 50 to 49; Chisago City, 51 to 36. Stillwater took the measure of the Maroons, 63 to 47; and River Falls beat them again, 46 to 35 as did Chisago City for the second time, 57 to 49.

In conference play, Central started off a dreary season by whipping the Maroons, 38 to 29. Wilson continued the monotony by 40 to 36. Monroe won by one point, 41 to 40; Johnson, 33 to 26; and Marshall tagged the Maroons with a 52 to 39 loss.

Getting back into the feeling of winning again, Harding stopped Norwood, Minnesota, 53 to 51; Hudson, for the second time, 46 to 43; and the Harding alumni, 51 to 39.

Then they went back to conference play and lost the last three games. Mechanic Arts beat them, 38 to 36; Washington won, 54 to 46; and Murray beat them in a heartbreaker, 39 to 37.

Although their won and lost record was not very impressive, the Maroons gave out with everything they had in every game and team spirit was excellent in spite of defeats. The true sports fans had a good time as they turned out in grand style for the last few games even though they knew that the outcome probably would not be very gratifying.

Ski Club

In 1951 the Ski Club, advised by Mr. George Kirkeby, returned to Harding after a three year absence. The boys jumped in two meets, at Duluth and Battle Creek Slide. Bill Ryan, George Schwnedig and Ken Zeman led the club in both contests. Joe Ryan, a freshman, will head next year's team.

Gym Leaders

Physical Education Leaders help Mr. Andrew Droen with the gym classes. They show the students how to use equipment with safety and care, and show new pupils how to tumble and use the trampoline.

Bowling Club

The first bowling team at Harding was organized this year by Mr. George Kirkeby. The members meet each Monday after school to bowl at the University Bowling Alley. At the present time, there is no bowling league among the high schools in the city, so the group will not be competing until such a league is formed.

Boys' "H" Club

The Boys' "H" Club is a group of boys who have participated in sports and won their letter. The club has meetings and takes part in school activities.

From this club, one member is chosen as the athlete of the year and is given awards and a blanket. This takes place at the annual school banquet at the end of the year. In 1951, Ronald Carlson won this coveted award.

"A" Hockey

Harding's hockey team ended another chapter in its history with a record of three victories, three defeats and three ties. Harding was just two points out of fourth place at the close of conference play.

At the beginning of the season, Harding took a trip to the Iron Range where they played Eveleth and Hibbing. Eveleth, 1951 state champions, took the measure of the Maroons by 9 to 2. Hibbing, an old rival and 1952 state champs, licked Harding 7 to 0. Harding beat Marshall 4 to 1 in the conference opener and then dropped the second game to Monroe by 4 to 2.

The Maroons blasted Washington 7 to 3, with DeWayne Thompson scoring six goals. Harding tied Central 2 to 2; Murray, 1 to 1; and Mechanic Arts 1 to 1.

The team lost to Humboldt 2 to 1, Johnson 7 to 0, and finished their conference slate with a 7 to 2 win over Wilson.

Jerry Larson, senior defenseman, was selected by his team mates as the most valuable player of the year.

"A" Baseball

Harding's baseball team finished the season with five wins and four defeats. Harding started off the season by whipping Marshall 6 to 1 with Chuck Voss doing the honors by hitting a home run to help win his own game.

Harding's ace left-hander, Fred Kaiser, made it two in a row as he showed his pitching ability to win over Murray by 7 to 3.

Errors spelled defeat for Harding when they met Washington, the city champs. The game was a pitching duel between Chuck Voss and Chuck Wieck, until Harding committed seven errors to lose the game 6 to 3.

Dick Dolby made it three victories and one defeat as he shut-out the Humboldt Indians, 6 to 0.

Harding couldn't get the hits that counted as they lost their second game at the hands of Central by 5 to 0.

Wilson didn't prove a match for the batsmen as they went down in defeat to the score of 7 to 3.

Harding held Johnson all the way to the last inning when Johnson nosed out the Maroons 3 to 1.

Timely hitting by the teammates helped Dick Dolby knock off Monroe, 11 to 5.

Mechanic Arts wrecked Harding's title hopes to the tune of 8 to 0, as the Maroons defense broke up in the late innings of the game.

Track

The Track team, under the direction of Mr. Warren Johnson, was composed of eight lettermen, plus a sprinkling of sophomores and juniors. Seniors who have been the nucleus of the squad are: Tom Johnston, Dean Rivard, Ronald Finwall and Charles Easbey.

Harding won two of the five meets which were played with city teams. The Maroons defeated Humboldt 70 to 43 and Washington 56 to 34. Marshall out-classed the Maroons 76 to 37, and Central won by 70 to 43. In the East Side meet, Johnson edged Harding out by the slim margin of 58 to 56.

Harding placed eighth in the city meet with four points.

Cross Country

The Cross Country team, which is brimming with under-classmen, rolled to victories over Wilson, Washington and Monroe in a city conference meet. They lost to Johnson, Murray and Washington in dual meets. All meets are held at Highland Park on a course which is one and seven-eighths miles long. Dick Proch and Martin Gallagher led the team, placing near the top at all meets.

Swimming Team

The Harding Swimming Team, co-captained by Jim Haselmann and Martin Gallagher, practiced for only one meet this year, the city meet at the University of Minnesota in which they scored nine points. Martin Gallagher was high point man with four points. Two points apiece were won by Jim Haselmann and Dick Pierson. Due to the closing of the Wilder pool for repairs, all regular meets were cancelled.

Gymnastics Team

The Harding Gymnastics Team, coached by Mr. Clyde McDonald, finished its conference slate in thirteenth place in a league of seventeen schools. In the city meet, Harlan Bensley placed tenth with 275 points. Ronald Gagliardi placed seventeenth with 273 points. The team was in its first year at Harding and better results are expected next year when the members will practice during school time, in hopes of upsetting the present East Side champions, Johnson.

Standing: Ralph Flohr, Harlan Bensley, Ronald Gagliardi, Leonard Schaeffer. Seated: Jim Siefert, Gary Pederson.

Tennis Team

Harding's 1951 Tennis Team closed the season with four wins and four losses. The team began the season with a 5 to 0 loss to Central and then whipped Murray 4 to 1 and Humboldt 3 to 2. They lost to Johnson 4 to 1 and Marshall 3 to 2 before they beat Monroe 4 to 0 and Washington 4 to 1. Wilson handed Harding a 4 to 1 loss that ended the season.

Dwaine Berg, Robert Harper, Jim Duncan, Pat Berry,

Golf Team

The Golf Team had a season of three wins and six losses for 1951. They defeated three Saint Paul teams by high scores: Marshall, 15 to 0; Monroe, $12\frac{1}{2}$ to $21\frac{1}{2}$; and Wilson, 11 to 4.

The Maroons bowed, however, to six superior teams: Central, $14\frac{1}{2}$ to $\frac{1}{2}$; Murray, $9\frac{1}{2}$ to $51\frac{1}{2}$; Humboldt, $13\frac{1}{2}$ to $11\frac{1}{2}$; Johnson, $14\frac{1}{2}$ to $\frac{1}{2}$; Mechanic Arts, $9\frac{1}{2}$ to $51\frac{1}{2}$; and Washington, 12 to 3.

G. A. A. Members

One of the most active organizations at Harding is the Girls' Athletic Association. With eyes still half closed from sleep, the early G.A.A.er's seek their points in a before-school game every Wednesday morning. Far luckier are the girls who participate in Monday and Wednesday fourth period G.A.A., who are excused from study halls for their needy exercise. The Thursday after-school members boast of their fountain of energy that remains after a day of school. All three groups value sportsmanship and enjoy companionship in a good game.

Girl's "H" Club

The Girls' Athletic Association, one of the most active organizations at Harding, provides companionship, exercise and recreation for each member. When a girl has earned a total of one thousand points, she is awarded an "H". By earning five hundred additional points while a senior, she is awarded an All-City Seal.

The girls are given their "H" and All-City Seal at an annual G.A.A. Assembly.

G. A. A. Board

At eight o'clock on alternate Friday mornings, fourteen girls congregate in the Girls' Gymnasium with Miss Leah Miller. These girls represent the G.A.A. Board and help to keep the organization running as smoothly as possible.

This year something new has been added. The G.A.A. Board plays games with other G.A.A. Board organizations in the city. The idea has proved to be successful in promoting good sportsmanship and friendliness among all the schools.

G. A. A. Members

Volley ball, basketball and baseball are just a few of the seasonal activities that are participated in by the girls. Along with exercise and recreation, the girls learn sportsmanship. Under the direction of Miss Leah Miller, each girl is given a chance to show her skill in accurate shooting, excellent guarding and fast thinking.

Under Classmen

"Watch, and learn by our mistakes."

Perhaps that is what the older Norseman said to those younger than himself, the ones who were eager to follow in the footsteps of their elders.

Our under-classmen, too, might well profit by the trials of the older members of Harding, the trials which taught them responsibility, self-confidence, and which attained honors for them.

The under-classmen of today will be the upper-classmen of tomorrow; they will be the leaders, teaching others through their example.

Freshmen

Gerald Ford, Diana Cotton and Marilyn McLeod are three of the freshmen students from Mrs. Florence Gamble's class who put out the Freshmen Green Book, a book which introduced freshmen to the traditions of Harding.

Seniors

As seniors, it is now time to take our last step in preparation before venturing out into the darkness of our unknown future.

Once we start out on these treacherous seas of mystery, we cannot turn back. It is to meet this challenge that we have strived to gain the knowledge, understanding, courage and integrity to help us face that which lies ahead.

Class of 1952

The Senior Class elected Jerry Testa as class president; John Wagner, vice-president; Ruth Roden, secretary; Mary Ann Thoele, treasurer.

These officers, with the help of the Senior Steering Committee, have played a great role in making this senior year our best and most enjoyable one at Harding.
